

Questions for 'The History of Chemistry' – Article 2 for ages 15 and below

Please mention your full name, birth date, school grade or status, name of school, email address, and phone number. The submission will not be considered if any information is missing. Identical submissions will not be considered as well.

Total answers should not exceed one full page typed, it can be less than a page. Answer to the best of your ability, some questions might not have a direct answer.

Print and submit your answers on Friday June 17, before the end of Taraweeh prayer. Submission box will be in the lobby area.

Questions:

1. What is alchemy and why were the Greeks so interested in it?
2. What did Muslims contribute to Chemistry? How was their research different from the Greeks?
3. How did the Muslims improve Chinese paper? What impact did this have on education?
4. What impact did the exploration of science have on Europe and Western countries?